

First Love Introduction

- Remember it is a journey not a race so rushing through the material will not be beneficial

First Love Introduction

- Remember that the exercises in Base Camp are to train our spirit. They are like the scaffolding used to erect a house. It is only needed during the building process
- Once you have built the house then you have to live in it.
- Practicing these basic exercises should continue until they are part of your lifestyle
- Now we begin to enter deeper in to the relationship

First Love Introduction

- Work through the first 3 House of God sessions in order as each session will build on the previous one.
- Don't move on to the next 3 First love sessions until you have clear revelation and experience of your spiritual identity
- Each session builds on the last and uses progressive revelation to help us understand our true eternal identity.
- This may be very basic to some of you but remember that we are training to mentor others
