Engaging God Ketubah 4

- God does not choose us on the basis of our good works, our past performance or history but actually in spite of it
- Rom 5:10 For if while we were enemies we were reconciled to God through the death of His Son, much more, having been reconciled, we shall be saved by His life.

Engaging God Ketubah 4

- 1 Cor 1:27 but God has chosen the foolish things of the world to shame the wise, and God has chosen the weak things of the world to shame the things which are strong, 28 and the base things of the world and the despised God has chosen, the things that are not, so that He may nullify the things that are, 29 so that no man may boast before God.

Engaging God Ketubah 4

- God's desire is a marriage relationship with us
- A Ketubah is a marriage contract made under a huppah or covering cloud
- Jesus went to the cross to prepare a place for us, a marriage chamber in us
- He was resurrected and came back for us so we could have a wedding.

Engaging God Ketubah 4

- To make a Ketubah we need to understand God's promises and purpose
- The new covenant becomes the basis of our Ketubah
- Ketubah needs to be made in light of our destiny scroll that was formed in God's heart and agreed with our spirit in eternity

Engaging God Ketubah 4

- Psa 139:16 Your eyes have seen my unformed substance; And in Your book were all written The days that were ordained for me, When as yet there was not one of them.
- Psa 139:17 How precious also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How vast is the sum of them!

Engaging God Ketubah 4

- The more we engage God in intimacy the more of the vast sum of His thoughts about us get revealed
- We find our true identity and progressive revelation of our blueprint scroll for our lives
- We can also produce our Ketubah from that context

Engaging God Ketubah 4

- Ketubah is about our expectations of our relationship with God and our destiny and purpose within that relationship.
- In relationship we seek first His kingdom in righteousness, which means out of our first love for Him, and then all God's promises become available to us.
- We are in Him and in His name

Engaging God Ketubah 4

- Gen 1:28 God blessed them; and God said to them, “Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it; and rule
- This mandate forms the basis of our expectations
- We are blessed by God so we can expect Him to empower us to succeed and prosper to the highest level

Engaging God Ketubah 4

- The Ketubah becomes the basis of our covenant exchange or trading.
- We trust Him by surrendering to our destiny and He provides, protects, empowers and us blesses us to prosper and succeed to the highest level.

Engaging God Ketubah 4

- What do we put in our Ketubah?
- Everything that will bring the fulfilment of our eternal destiny
- The expectation of the availability of all the resources necessary to enable us to fulfil God's purpose
- It then becomes the foundational truth and reality from which we live
- We can frame our lives in accordance with it

Engaging God Ketubah 4

- Your Ketubah will enable you to rule in life and not be subject to the circumstances around you
- So it is really important to spend time engaging with God about your Ketubah
- Begin to formulate it so you can be joined to Him in new covenant marriage relationship

Engaging God Ketubah 4

- Look at a corporate example our draft Ekklesia Ketubah
- Personal example
- How to use our Ketubah to frame our lives
- How to frame or create our reality in alignment with our destiny

Engaging God Ketubah 4

- As a church we have a blueprint given to us by God
- We use that blueprint to establish our church Ketubah
- We use our expectations of God so we can fulfil our blueprint and bring glory to God as heirs, co-heirs and sons
