DAY OF RESURRECTION & JUDGMENT

Vision 2013

- Why is prophecy so important?
- Amos 3:3 Do two men walk together unless they have made an agreement?
- Amos 3:7 Surely the Lord God does nothing Unless He reveals His secret counsel To His servants the prophets.
- Power of agreement

Vision 2013

- Matt 18:18 Truly I tell you, whatever you bind, permit and declare proper and lawful on earth must be what is already permitted in heaven, and whatever you loose, forbid and declare to be improper and unlawful on earth must be what is already forbidden in heaven

Vision 2013

- Matt 18:19 Again I tell you, if two of you on earth agree (harmonize together, make a symphony together) about whatever [anything and everything] they may ask, it will come to pass and be done for them by My Father in heaven.
- Power in agreement

Vision 2013

- Prophetic Word 31st December 2012
- Weigh & review
- What applies to you?
- What is God saying to you?
- How do you respond?
- Do you need to make any changes & adjustments to you thinking, feeling or acting for 2013 to come into agreement with God?

Vision 2013

- It is time, it is time for a change in season, the old season will continue but a new season will be layered over it. The new season will be the demonstration of justice and judgment that comes from a baptism into the river of glory.

Vision 2013

- This is where you will come to know Me as Father God. I am about to reveal myself like you have never known before. I am about to reveal the true nature of grace that reveals true justice and brings about true judgment. I am about to reveal the true nature of My heart.

Vision 2013

- I am God, I am God do you not realise the truth that I am God? A deeper revelation will be unveiled as you come as a body and stand before My mercy seat. Yes come and stand before the place of true judgment where the blood is the record of My dealings with man.

Vision 2013

- My will is about to be revealed and many will say “this and that cannot be of God” because they do not really know Me, they only know about Me. I am inviting you to come and stand before me where I can write a deeper revelation of My heart on the tablets of your hearts.

Vision 2013

- You have been invited, now come through the place where justice and judgment met and where the blood stands recorded forever, to the river of My glory. Immerse yourselves in Me, come deeper and deeper into Me and I will become more and more real to you, who I really am.

Vision 2013

- Your understanding and revelation has been so shallow, you have known a measure of grace from that river but there is so much more. I am about to reveal My true nature and justice and judgment will be meted out.

Vision 2013

- I am about to fill those shadows of heaven that are on earth with so much supernatural manifestations of My glory and power as a sign of My affirmation and authentication of My true house and My true people.

Vision 2013

- Many will reject me because they do not know Me and I will have to say depart from Me because I do not recognise you, I do not see heaven in this place. Ichabod the glory has departed, many will be like Samson who did not realise that My power had left. Ichabod will be in contrast to shekinah as My glory will be the judging factor, so many will reject it because they never knew the real Me.

Vision 2013

- That is why you have been invited to know the real Me so that you can be forerunners of the glory presence. You will see angels on assignments amongst you and the cloud of witnesses will descend and start to appear. Mantles of glory soaked with oil will settle in your midst. You will have visitations from those in white linen who will testify to the presence of My glory.

Vision 2013

- You must all learn to stand in My presence and I will invite you to come to the judgment seat where My fiery pillar will judge your works and the wood, hay and straw will be consumed. I will give you new names and I will give you new identities and I will give you new commissions when the old scrolls have been judged and cleansed by fire.

Vision 2013

- Continue to be the living sacrifices that you must be but there are showers of blessings that I am going to manifest in your midst, in person. Get ready for the healing pool where healing mantles will be laid down like a pool. Get ready for miracles be expectant that there is going to be an increase in the supernatural manifestations of glory.

Vision 2013

- Your regional authority will spread out and government will be formed. Many wells will be re-dug and new wells will be added so that my walls of fire will start to join together. Your relationship links will strengthen although some links will be broken but new links will be forged.

Vision 2013

- Be very careful that you do not become weighed down and hindered by the circumstances but that you rise above them into the higher realms of heaven. I am going to give you access to higher courts and higher thrones. For many of you will be invested with new power and authority.

Vision 2013

- For some you will need to go through deeper levels of succession and for others the time for enthronement is here. You must take your places, the old orders have to die so you can succeed and be enthroned at new and higher levels of power and authority.

Vision 2013

- For some dreams will begin to be fulfilled and for others your dreams will be revealed as mere hopes with no substance. Do not let this cause you to be discouraged and disillusioned but see it as the opportunity to have your true destinies revealed. Let go of the old to embrace the new.

Vision 2013

- Do not be earth bound step through the veils that are open to you by yielding to your destinies. New places in the realms of heaven will be open to you if you persevere through the fiery pillar of judgment.
- New – New – New – New.
- New for old. New for old

Vision 2013

- New dreams    New Clothes
- New visions    New Identities
- New family    New marriage
- New Jobs    New responsibilities
- New homes    New fields
- New furrows    New Favour

Vision 2013

- New Authority
  - New Dimensions
  - New anointing
  - New for old
  - New for old
- New Mantles
  - New blessings
  - New songs
  - New for old

Vision 2013

- I will anoint you with the oil of joy and gladness. My joy will be revealed in you and your joy will be full. Anointing oil of joy
- It is time to start to look up and look out and see that the fields are ready for harvest. I have called you to be a place where the future labourers will be equipped in supernatural ministry and authority. Start to change your focus and see that all that I do in your midst is so you will be able to take it out.

Vision 2013

- The only walls I want you to have are my walls of fire around you. The walls of separation between church and community must be removed so that the light that I shine in your midst you will take out like torches ablaze, on fire, passionate for the lost and hurting.

Vision 2013

- Change the focus and begin to expect miracles of salvation and a trickle will become a flood if you are ready to disciple and equip the ones that will be drawn to the light.

Vision 2013

- Be light bearers, be light carriers, be sons of the light who have nothing to do with darkness and no darkness is found within them. Be radiant examples of righteousness, peace and joy; flowing in the deep love that I have for you.

Vision 2013

- Review of international prophetic ministry
- Weigh & interpret for ourselves both corporately and individually
- What is God saying to you?
- How are you going to respond?
- Confirmatory
- Directional

Vision 2013

- Affirmation of our call to be prepared like Joseph in the cocoon of prison obscurity
- Emerge from the cocoon to launch into flight
- Next 2 years is very important so we become ready
- Birthing something through intercession in heavenly realms

Vision 2013

- Arise, shine and radiate. I am filling boundaries of My inheritance with glory. I am revealing places where My inheritance is not filled with glory, places where glory is absent and curses are in operation.

You will hear a new call. I can assign and enlarge your sphere of operation, but you must cooperate with My glory

Vision 2013

- Procrastination – not making the most of My time, is a great competitor of My purposes. Postponement and misplaced waiting are competing with your wearing the prosperity I have for you now. So rise up, awaken the dawn, shake out the evil workers, put your hand to the plough and advance in the field of operation that I am setting before you.

Vision 2013

- New passion is coming alive in you. Arise and awaken to My passion and strength. My glory is part of My wealth strategy in the earth today. Feel the weight of the glory and watch others be drawn to you. My people need to know who they are, how they are positioned and the inheritance they have been grafted into and given

Vision 2013

- I have a people who will triumph. If you will order your prayers, I will order your steps. You will walk in victory in the season ahead. The world around you does not understand My glory but they will recognise your authority when you wear glory as a garment.

Vision 2013

- There is a movement in the atmosphere! I am sending help into your atmospheric realm! But you must move with Me. There are places I need to access and faith responses I need from you. So listen carefully! The road map of heaven is being placed in the earth. I will reveal My stops for visitation.

Vision 2013

- Follow me and you will meet your atmospheric intervention. Angels will assist you on the way. My presence will go before you and be your rearguard. There is a greater glory than you have know that is waiting for you – a glory that will break the power of disinterest and discouragement that has held you captive

Vision 2013

- There will be a power released for you to finish the assignments that have not been completed. This will cause you to begin again stronger than you finish! My glory is great.

Vision 2013

- "As I chose to record the works of My servant Joseph in a book about new beginnings, so My presence in you will become a place to birth a new beginning. This anointing will bring a Genesis experience to My Church." I am forming in you a place of supernatural provision.

Vision 2013

- I have put My Presence in you to become a silo of abundance resembling a farmer's silo that stores grain for a future planting. Like Joseph, you will come to this place of provision bringing nothing with you, except My Presence. It will be from the depths of My Presence in you that I will draw out this blessing for the nations.“

Vision 2013

- This anointing will not be a work of addition, but of supernatural multiplication. I will birth this in you like I did when I multiplied the loaves and fish that fed thousands. My provision will flow from what appears to the natural eye to be a place of nothingness. It will become a miraculous provision that will surprise not only those who receive it, but it will surprise My people. You will say, 'Where did this come from? How did abundance come from nothing?'

Vision 2013

- I will draw the nations to you as I did to Joseph when I repositioned him in Egypt. They will come for a survival provision, but I have more planned than just their survival. I will use you to bring them into their destiny.“ The Joseph Anointing will turn a famine into a feast; a lack into a gain and a set back into a leap forward. The nations will see that I am in your midst. Set the tables – a feast of provision is coming.

Vision 2013

- Finally, the trials and issues you have faced in your life have been used by God to position you for the greatest impact. As Joseph spoke to his brothers, the Lord will also speak through you to those who have stood against you in the past. As you are anointed and released you will be able to say, like Joseph:
- "God has sent me ahead of you to keep you and your families alive and to preserve many survivors. So it was God who sent me here, not you!" Genesis 45:7-8

Vision 2013

- Vision of a Brutal Winter
- I was shown that it was going to be a brutal winter; lots of snow and tremendous wind. The church was being served a 32 oz. beer in a frosted mug. They could drink it or not! It was their choice! They had two hours to drink it or not! After that time, it would evaporate.

Vision 2013

- I believe this brutal winter with lots of snow and tremendous wind speaks of the next couple months. It will be a time of great change and great confusion in the world especially America. However for the committed Christian it will be a powerful time in the Holy Spirit.

Vision 2013

- This 32 oz. beer speaks of two things; Psalm 32 and Beersheba. Beersheba means a deep well or well of the oath. There are two things being offered to the church now; a greater depth in the knowledge and power of the Holy Spirit and the promises of God.

Vision 2013

- I believe the two hours could represent a two year grace period God is extending to the church for prayer and intercession to midwife this birth. After that time, it will be like the frost on the mug and evaporate or disappear.

Vision 2013

- The Repentant Church
- The church that has repented and is clean before the Lord is blessed. It is covered by the blood of Jesus. The church whose spirit has been renewed (psalm 51) is a people of no guile like Nathaniel and God imputes His righteousness to them. Righteousness is conforming to His thoughts, purpose and action (Rom. 4:7-8) and God finds no fault in this church. (Ps. 32:1-2)

Vision 2013

- The Church must be continually before the Lord in prayer and intercession allowing the Holy Spirit to pour water on the tares of its soul. Each time God reveals a need for repentance; the church must repent with a whole heart. Then God considers them blessed!

Vision 2013

- Prayer and Intercession
  - Psalm 32:6-11
- This is where the CHURCH is headed in this two year season! As the church prays their message will be heard through intercession.

Vision 2013

- The promise is: the trials will not overflow the church that is committed to God through intercession. He will raise up a standard against the enemy. (Is 59:19) The standard is Jesus Christ; the anointed One. (6-7) Their praise and worship will bring deliverance for the body. By making a full commitment to God, the church will be led by the Holy Spirit of God. (8)

Vision 2013

- God will speak to those who have understanding. The 200 sons of Issachar had understanding of the times and knew what Israel should do. Mature sons and daughters have learned how to bridle their tongues. (9) The wicked will know the woes of God but the righteous shall know His mercy and loving-kindness. (10) The righteous shall rejoice and be glad in the Lord. (11)

Vision 2013

- Let's Embrace the Promise
- It's time to embrace the promise God is extending to the church. It's our job to offer the invitation. It's up to the church to embrace it. The church has a choice to make now; to receive the prayer warriors or reject them. The prayer warriors that are coming along now are women. If the church sets the women down this time they become second class citizens again. If this happens, then that church leadership will be set down also.

Vision 2013

- A general that goes into battle without the troops behind him is a general that will die. A general is called to lead but he needs to lead the whole body. Intercessors are prayer warriors and most of them are women. It's going to take both men and women to be warriors. They are the ones who will take the high ground. The time to embrace this is now and the choice is extended to the church. The church that embraces the women and allows them to come forth is the church that will prosper and it will grow in number.

Vision 2013

- The Cocoon

- To outward appearances, the cocoon can look like a lonely place. In times when we are desperately trying to move forward, and already going slower than we would like, it is difficult to let go and surrender our control for what looks like complete stillness. The cocoon can look like a wilderness, but in that case, it's a wilderness of oneness where much more is accomplished than those moments first reveal.

Vision 2013

- The cocoon, crawling up into God's arms, letting go of everything else, and just enjoying His heartbeat and embrace, knowing that those very moments are more powerful and more productive than anything else we could do. We could keep striving like the caterpillar and inch forward little by little, maybe even take another scoot toward breakthrough, or we can celebrate such closeness with our Creator tucked into the living peace that births impossible fruit.

Vision 2013

- The Caterpillar
- Cease striving, and know that I am God. Psalm 46:10
- The caterpillar often finds itself striving for significance or looking for breakthrough. We won't find breakthrough as a caterpillar, as such would be a substandard blessing and breakthrough. We are not called to be successful or blessed caterpillars, we are called to be new creatures: butterflies. For every caterpillar there comes a season where they must realize that their dreams and their unique calling cannot be lived out apart from the cocoon.

Vision 2013

- The Butterfly
- Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. 2 Corinthians 5:17
- The butterfly shows us unprecedented breakthrough. It is a new creation! It does not measure up to other butterflies, it does not strive, and each one has its own unique wings. Every butterfly's wings are different shapes, different colours and new patterns, a reflection of God's own unique imprint on each one from within the cocoon

Vision 2013

- Joseph was the ultimate caterpillar turned butterfly. He scooted around forecasting his dreams of wings until he found himself deep in a cocoon of a prison. But it was that prison that brought his dreams to reality. The dream-coat was but a representation of the favour and calling of God, while its true power and reality was Joseph's wings developing inside. Joseph held onto his dream with vigour, but transformed in his cocoon within the prison of the palace.

Vision 2013

- Just because you see the prison around you, doesn't mean you're not already in the palace. We must not leave the palace of our calling while trying to escape our prison. However unlikely it may seem, and whatever our outward version of a cocoon may be, God often surprises us with how He brings forth our dreams.

Vision 2013

- Prepare For Launch
- It's from the cocoon that we are launched, perhaps when we least expect it, when we are caught simply enjoying God in the wilderness of oneness that He has swept us away to. According to Joseph's dream, he was waiting for the familiar, his family, to come and promote him into his breakthrough. But God is a Father who loves to surprise His children, who always does us at least one better than we can think or imagine. Joseph had to surrender to his cocoon and let God surprise Him with greater wings than even he could hope or dream.

Vision 2013

- With such a good Father, surrender always equals the best kind of surprises! What, or Whom, is inside you and waiting to breakout? For me, my breakthrough begins when I crawl up in God's lap and enter His "Cocoon." We usually focus on the caterpillar or the butterfly, but often what is most powerful is when we learn to celebrate what's in between!

Vision 2013

- "I am beginning to push My people into a new season upon the world stage. This push will be a work of My Spirit needed to overcome a reluctance that has developed in your hearts. I will never call you to a new place where I would ever leave you alone and without power. As I told My servant Joshua, I tell you today, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' The stage upon which I am now positioning you is a place complete with everything you will need to accomplish My will.

Vision 2013

- "My presence will be your single resource in this new place. Bring nothing with you. I want your trust to be placed in My presence alone, not in your performance or what has worked for you in the past. I will stand with you in this new place to help you experience the fullness of what I have called you to do in My name. I have begun a good work in you, and this push of My Spirit is to move you to a new place where you will stand confident until My good work is completed in you."

Vision 2013

- This is a season of countdown, for the drawing of a curtain, where things God has promised are about to be seen. Many have chosen to remain standing in the wings of God's miraculous stage instead of stepping out onto this visible platform of faith. It has been such a long time that some have forgotten why they are waiting. They have forgotten the words of their part in God's play. They don't remember their cue. The push of God's Spirit is coming to launch them out onto God's stage for a demonstration of His love and power as the curtain of time is pulled back.

Vision 2013

- "Ask Me for the keys to the next two years."
- I immediately saw a bright light on the horizon. Like many of the things God speaks, this has multiple meanings. For me, it speaks of hope. However, as I have sought the Lord, I felt that it also speaks of the window of time before us. He spoke to me concerning the importance of using our time wisely in the next season.

Vision 2013

- "I saw light on the shoulders of the Body of Christ, which speaks of our responsibility – the burden we carry. I specifically felt that light on our shoulders represents carrying the burden of the Lord. Light on the horizon of the earth is the hope that God is setting upon it – hope for tomorrow. God is a God of hope!

Vision 2013

- Through many of these visions, I've noticed that yellow has been the primary colour. So much so that I am now associating it with the year 2013 in my own mind. Historically for me, yellow has always related to hope and the gifts of God on our lives. It is symbolic of the light of the Lord flowing out of us to give hope to the world around us. God has given us a responsibility to carry the hope of the Good News to the world around us.

Vision 2013

- I then saw the Church as a white lampstand being set up in a dark place, and I immediately felt like something good was about to happen. The Hebrew word menorah is translated lampstand, and means "light bearer." God is not only setting the Church up for favour, but He is reminding us that He called us to be His light bearer in every place of darkness. He is setting up the lampstand, pouring out the oil, and lighting the flame. He is intent on making the Church a pure and burning light in the world.

Vision 2013

- 2013 is a time to focus fully on the hope we carry and on the hope to come. It's time to burn for God; to become fascinated with Him and passionate for His desires. It's time to shine!
- 2014 will be a year when God is shifting our hope into the substance of faith, which must climb back into a prominent focus in the Church.

Vision 2013

- "Time's a-wasting." I don't talk like that, but that's exactly what I heard. It reminded me of those who live a slower pace of life with no sense of urgency or purpose. There are good aspects to a slower pace of life. However, in this case, it speaks to me of the mentality that avoids our responsibility to carry out the great commission (Matthew 28:18-20). The great commission was a command directly from Jesus, not a great suggestion.

Vision 2013

- God called us for the purpose of good works, His works; the same works that Jesus demonstrated. It's time to get into motion. Specifically, to take good news wherever we are directed by God. The Macedonian call also speaks specifically to taking the power of the Gospel to those places where there are open doors and open hearts. It's time to focus on putting Jesus Christ on display where the people are pleading for good news. It's time to give people hope.

Vision 2013

- 2013 is a time to pursue people who need hope, realizing you are sent to do the works of God. God will guide those in motion.
- 2014 will be a time of great harvest for those who will be positioned and working towards it.

Vision 2013

- 2013 is a time to allow God to bring something old and something new together; to merge something of tradition with something fresh and God-breathed. It's a time to find a fresh revelation from God in things that originated with God and the Church but were "borrowed" by the world or tainted through a lack of Christ-likeness. It's time to re-align our word to the Word of God.

Vision 2013

- 2014 will be a year for revelatory teaching to begin taking a prominent role throughout the Church, which will allow many to be captivated with the God of yesterday, today, and tomorrow. They will be like the "...scribe who has been trained for the Kingdom of Heaven...like a master of a house, who brings out of his treasure what is new and what is old" (Matthew 13:52).

Vision 2013

- 13 the worlds view
- The world looks at 13 as unlucky. Some airlines don't have a row 13 on planes, many elevators don't have a 13th floor, and Friday the 13th is seen as unlucky, etc. The number itself stands for unlucky, devastation, destruction, confusion and many other negative things. This is what the world is looking at.

Vision 2013

- 2013 God's perspective
- Our faith perspective?
- Decree and Declare
- Deuteronomy 30:9 Everything we put our hand to do shall prosper!, The Lord your God will make you abound in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, in the increase of your livestock, and in the produce of your land for good. The blessings of God are running and overtaking us!

Vision 2013

- Deuteronomy 28:2, And all these blessings shall come upon you and overtake you, if you obey the voice of the Lord your God.
- Psalm 37:4 God is giving you the desires of your heart., Take delight in the LORD, and He will give you the desires of your heart.

Vision 2013

- Ephesians 2:7, And so God can always point to us as examples of the incredible wealth of His favour and kindness toward us, as shown in all He has done for us through Christ Jesus.
- I want God to point to me as an example of His favour, kindness and wealth in ALL He has done for me. Let Him point to you. We are going to be a sign and a wonder to all around.

Vision 2013

- Jeremiah 29:11-13 Our future!, For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon Me and come and pray to Me, and I will hear you. You will seek Me and find Me, when you seek Me with all your heart.
- Declare and decree these over you daily.

Vision 2013

- With greater vision comes greater responsibility
- Faithfulness in the small things will enable God to trust us with the greater things
- Authority & power healings, miracles, Finances
- God must get all the glory
